Circular

Roc. No.111743/2013/BA2

Dated:18.7.2013

Sub: Structural aspects of swimming pool to be taken care while considering for permission – Instructions issued – Regarding.

----

It is noted that increased number of proposals are received now-a-days for construction of swimming pool within the premises of all kinds of developments like hotel, lodge, educational institution, residential group developments and even in individual residential buildings also and hence regulation for structural aspects of swimming pool is found necessary. In this regard certain instructions in respect of structural & safety aspects of swimming pool are issued herewith for adherence while considering for permission of such proposals.
