A M E N D M E N T No.24/82

Pages 24-25- Appendix 5- Item 8-B(2)-I(b) Newspapersthereunder:-

(p.t.o.)

Substitute the following for the existing item:-

Commissioners and Secretaries to Government and the Commissioners who are appointed in lieu of Members, erstwhile Board of Revenue may purchase any seven of the following newspapers:

1. The Hindu.
2. The Indian Express.
3. The Financial Express.
4. The Economic Times.
5. Dinamani.
6. Dailythanthi (Dinathanthi)
7. Dinamalar.
8. Makkalkural.

The Secretaries to Government may decide to which of the officers in their departments these newspapers should be supplied and whether in their offices or residences for purposes of news scrutiny and follow up.

The other officers, viz Heads of Departments Collectors Superintendents of Police and Deputy Inspectors General of Police having independent offices may purchase any four of the above newspapers.

Joint Secretaries to Government and Additional Secretaries to Government may purchase any two of the newspapers mentioned above

The authorisations referred to above are only the enabling permission and it does not mean that each of these papers has necessarily to be bought by each of the eligible officers. The used papers are to be returned to the office as usual for disposal as wastepaper.

Yours faithfully,

(Sd) K.M. Guruswamy,
Deputy Secretary to Government
