HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (AB.2) DEPARTMENT

G.O.Ms.No. 246

Dated: 17-9-2001

Read:-

1. G.O.(4D)32,Health, dated 16.11.99
2. From the DPH & PM Lr.No.47637/Bud/S2/99 dated 15.3.2000.

ORDER:-

As per rule 11 of the Prevention of Food Adulteration Rule published in G.O.Ms.No. 1752. Health. dated 18-2-61. the fees payable for samples of food analysed shall not be less than Rs. 10 per sample provided that the Government Analyst may at his discretion charge a higher fee depending upon the work involved subject to a maximum of Rs. 50/- per sample. This rule came into force with effect from 1-7-1961.

2. The Analysis fees in the existing Rule 11 needs revision. In view of the amount of work and expenditure involved in the analysis of the samples as there has been multi-fold increase in the cost of chemicals, glasswares and other Laboratory items required for analysis of food sample and the increase in the Establishment and other over-head charges. the Central (Government) Food Laboratory has revised the fees for analysis of food per sample from Rs. 40/- to Rs.200/- with effect from 23-5-95. Again with effect from 20-11-98. the Central (Government) Food Laboratory has revised the fees for analysis of food per sample from Rs. 200/- to Rs. 1000/-.

3. The Director of Public Health and Preventive Medicine has proposed to enhance the Food Analysis fees as follows:-

- i) The fees payable for sample of food articles analysed for the purpose of Section 12 of the Act shall be Rs. 50/- for consumer organisation and Rs. 100/- per sample received from other consumers.
- ii) The fees to be charged by the Public Analyst for samples of Food articles received for analysis from private purchaser, Trader, Manufacturers and other State and Central Government bodies and Public Sector undertakings etc. shall be (minimum) Rs. 300/- per sample to the maximum of Rs. 500/- as decided by the Public Analyst upon the work involved.

4. The Government have carefully examined the proposal and decided to food analysis fees as follows:-

- i) The fees payable for sample of food articles analysed for the purpose of Section 17 of the Act shall be Rs. 50/- for consumer organisation and Rs. 100/- per sample from other consumers.
- ii) The fees to be charged by the Public Analyst for samples of Food articles for analysis from private purchaser, Trader, Manufacturers and other State and Government bodies and Public Sector undertakings etc. shall be (minimum) per sample to the maximum of Rs. 500/- as decided by the Public Analyst upon the work involved.

5. The Director of Public Health and Preventive Medicine is requested to see the enhancement proposal once in two years.

6. This order issues with the concurrence of Finance Department vide its order No. 30738/H/2001-1, dated 8.5.2001.
